Terminal Disclaimer

An attorney or agent, not of record, is not authorized to sign a terminal disclaimer in the capacity as an attorney or agent acting in a representative capacity as provided by 37 CFR 1.34 (a). See 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c).

Thus, the Terminal Disclaimer filed on February 20, 2009, has been DISAPPROVED.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

A patent to a genus would, necessarily, extend the rights of a species or sub-species should the genus claims of the instant application issue after the after the species or subgenus. Therefore, in this type of obvious-type double patenting situation, a Graham analysis of the type required in an Obviousness-Type Double Patenting situation is not required, albeit certainly, one could readily be applied.

Claims 1-12 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent Number 6,618,330 B1.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant application is broader in every aspect than claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent Number 6,618,330 B1.

Claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent Number 6,618,330 B1 are identical in every aspect with respect to claims 1-12 of the instant application, except that claim 1 of the instant application includes a generic description of a slider (lens support, in lieu of a slider).

Moreover still, although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims 1-12 of the instant application are generic to all that is recited in claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent Number 6,618,330 B1. That is, claims 1-12 of the instant application are anticipated by claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent Number 6,618,330 B1. Additionally, see Eli Lilly and Co. v. Barr Laboratories Inc., 58 USPQ2d, 1869 and Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
